

BACK
TO THE FUTURE

LOCAL AUTHORITY MANAGEMENT OF THE HISTORIC ENVIRONMENT IN NORTHERN IRELAND
LEARNING FROM ELSEWHERE

The Northern Ireland Branch of the IHBC is holding a half-day seminar on the implications for the historic environment arising from local government reform

DESTINATION

MAY

14

2015

Clifton House, Belfast

Speakers from Wales, the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland will provide valuable insights into local authority management of the historic environment in other jurisdictions, the critical importance of centre-local relations in the new planning system, and the potential interface between conservation and community planning

To register your interest in attending, please email Nicola Donnelly: ihbcni@ihbc.org.uk