

Membership Application Training Event
MATE
Thursday 13th September 2018
Woodstock Town Hall 12.00 – 4.30pm

The Mark of the Conservation Professional

Kate Kendall, IHBC's Learning Education, Training and Standards (LETS) Officer is coming to Woodstock to another MATE day session, for people interested in joining the IHBC or upgrading their membership.

Rob Parkinson, past chairman of the South Branch, architect and of Historic England will also be giving his talk on Woodstock Town Hall and Blenheim Palace, which is not to be missed!

Come along there is no charge and a sandwich lunch will be provided!

Kate will start the day with a presentation on the IHBC membership process then breaking out into smaller groups which will allow attendees to ask questions about their own applications and case studies.

As Kate says: 'We know that applications can seem at first like a daunting process. However, the MATE sessions are designed to help you better understand the process and ease you along the way to IHBC membership and formal, professional accreditation with us. We're here to support your application, and want you to succeed.'

Rob's talk will be about the beautiful Woodstock Town Hall, which is a grade II listed building situated in the very heart of the town. It was built in 1766 and designed by the famous architect Sir William Chambers RA who also designed Somerset House in London, The Pagoda in Kew Gardens and parts of Blenheim Palace.

Space is limited so if you would like to come please let Kate Kendall lets@ihbc.org.uk know by email no later than Sept. 6th

Directions: Woodstock Town Hall, Market Place, Woodstock, OX20 1SL

The Town Hall is situated on the Market Place in the centre of Woodstock.

Parking in Woodstock is currently free. Some parking is available in the Town Centre but this is mainly short stay - either 1 or 3 hours maximum duration. The car park in Hensington Road offers longer term parking and is a 10 minute walk from the Town Hall. This car park is situated behind the library and fire station.

There is a frequent bus service running to and from Woodstock.
The nearest railway station is at Long Hanborough and taxis are readily available from Oxford Station.
