

ICON Stone and Wall Paintings Group Conference

Supported by Historic England

AT THE GOING DOWN OF THE SUN –

Approaches to war memorial conservation around the First World War Centenary

At the end of the centenary commemorations of the First World War, this one day conference aims to reflect on current approaches to war memorial conservation practice and look to their future care

Date: Thursday, 15th November 2018 at 9.30am

Venue: Fazeley Studios, Birmingham

Cost: ICON Members: £60.00
 Non Members: £75.00
 ICON Student members: £30.00
 Students (non ICON members): £40.00

There are a limited number of places available and we encourage people to register as soon as possible at <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/at-the-going-down-of-the-sun-approaches-to-war-memorial-conservation-tickets-49806104399>

YOU MUST REGISTER BY SUNDAY 4TH NOVEMBER

Programme

- 09:30-10:00* Coffee & Registration
- 10:00-10:10 Welcome; Clara Willett (SWP Group Committee Treasurer)
- 10:10-10:40 Commemoration; Dr Emma Login, First World War Memorials Programme Manager
- 10:40-11:10 Current Challenges facing War Memorials; War Memorials Trust
- 11:10-11:40* Coffee
- 11:40-12:10 Conservation Approaches to Stone War Memorials; David Odgers, Conservator
- 12:10-12:35 Applying Structure from Motion Technology; David Andrews, Geospatial Imaging Analyst, Imaging Team, Historic England
- 12:40-12:50 Summing up & Questions
- 12:50-14:00* Lunch
- 14:00-14:30 Conservation Approaches to Metalwork on War Memorials; Rupert Harris, Conservator
- 14:30-15:00 Managing the Estate of the Commonwealth War Graves Commission; Jon Gedling, Director of Works, CWGC
- 15:00-15:30* Tea
- 15:30-16:00 Conservation Approaches to Inscriptions; Angus Lawrence, Conservator
- 16:30-16:30 What's the Future for War Memorials?; Frances Moreton, Director, War Memorials Trust
- 16:30-17:00 Summing up & Questions